

One For Sorrow

Mouthwash

One for sorrow
I'm walking home on my one
I've begged and borrowed
I've looked for you high and low
And all the answers I seek
And all the people i meet
Only reminds me of how much i need you
So now i know what you meant to me
Taking myself so fucking seriously
Eyes open wide staring into the sun
Did you see me cry as i took flight from your love
Been through the fire throuhj the rain and now i now
To love again
One for sorrow
Caught in the eye of a storm
Can't see tomorrow i can't see through this brick walls
When tomorrow looks as empty
As yesterday now seems
And today won't wait for someone who stares at their feet
