

Change My World

Moya Brennan

If it's true how will I agree
What the poet says of history?
Search the ashes of time to change my world

I could change my world

Tell me how, how I fail to see
What the preacher says to make believe
Moving on, not afraid to change my world

I could change my world
I could change my world

I could change my world
I could change my world
I could change my world