Moya Brennan

Follow the hope Follow the dream Willing to meet Willing to go Willing to share Follow the word Follow the hope Follow the dream Willing to meet Willing to go Willing to share Still gray skies will turn to blue Under this banner of hope Hidden stories on winding roads I trust Your ways Is Tú mo Dhia Is Tú tá lán Do ghrá inniú domh Is Tú mo Dhia Is Tú tá lán Do ghrá inniú domh Follow the word, your action Follow the hope, your vision Follow the dream you gave to me Willing to meet the answer Willing to go the journey Willing to share my love for You You sent from the heavens All that's precious from above Your breath from the heavens I will cherish all your love Follow the word, your action Follow the hope, your vision Follow the dream you gave to me Willing to meet the answer Willing to go the journey Willing to share my love for You You sent from the heavens All that's precious from above Your breath from the heavens I will cherish all your love Sailing out in gathered haze Calling gently a new way
