

Amnesia

Mozella

Help me 'cause I'm falling and I just can't see you
You came along and took a hold of me
You gave me sugar-coated valentines
Promises that you were mine
Tying up my line, talking dirty to me

And all I need I thought I found
You only let me down
You went sleeping around, around

I wanna go back to the day before I met ya
Things would be better if I could forget ya
Somebody give me something strong so I can release ya
A double shot of amnesia, life could be sweeter for me

Everyone was saying what are you doing playing
With her heart when you don't care
She's much too young to string along
Put her back where she belongs
Why you doing her wrong? It's just not fair

And all I need is peace of mind
I wanna put it behind
Quit wasting my time, my time

I wanna go back to the day before I met ya
Things would be better if I could forget ya
Somebody give me something strong so I can release ya
A double shot of amnesia, life could be sweeter
Sweeter for me

Yeah, you only let me down
How do you turn a girl around?
And now I need some peace of mind
I wanna put this behind, stop wasting all my time

I wanna go back to the day before I met ya
Things could be better if I could forget ya
Somebody give me something strong so I can release ya
A double shot of amnesia, life could be sweeter for me

I wanna go back to the day before I met ya
Things would be better if I could forget, I could forget
Somebody give me something strong so I can release ya
A double shot of amnesia, life could be sweeter for me

Sweeter, life could be sweeter
Sweeter, life could be sweeter
Sweeter, life could be sweeter, sweeter
