

Let Yourself Go

Mr. Big

I wanna know why do you stop,
When you half way there.
Are of you afraid
To dust all the ghosts of your back.
Now is the time free yourself
From the cross that you bear
Nowhere to run, tangles and chains

You made it, yeah you can think of

Walk to the edge when you want something more
Let yourself go
Don't hang on for saviours to soften the fall
Let yourself go

So you've been burnt, and you're not alone
Right from the ashes

cought in a trap the soul in your head,
If you face it, you'll escape it.

To a place, where there's life, life after love
Let yourself go

You can made it and I'll be waiting

Walk to the edge when you want something more
Let yourself go
Don't hang on for saviours to soften the fall
Let yourself go

No more running in circles and closing your eyes
Let yourself go
Step out of the shadows and into the light
Let yourself go
