

Close Your Eyes

Mr. Mister

There is a place in my heart for you
Where no one's ever been
This is a place I want to take you to
I'm not afraid to let you in
Now I watch the bright lights disappear
Tonight the darkness is our friend

Close your eyes, let go
I can feel your heartbeat
And it beats so slow
Close your eyes, touch me
There is no danger
You can close your eyes

Another well-worn and dusty street
Are my eyes too tired to see?
I want to stop the world and go to sleep
But this world's too fast for me
Now watch the bright full moon appear
And I close my eyes and pray my soul to keep

Close your eyes, let go
I can feel your heartbeat
And it beats so slow
Close your eyes, touch me
There is no danger
You can close your eyes

Now watch the bright full moon appear
And I close my eyes and pray my soul to keep
And I can see your face so clear

Close your eyes, let go
I can feel your heartbeat
And it beats so slow
Close your eyes, touch me
There is no danger
You can close your eyes

Close your eyes, let go
I can feel your heartbeat
And it beats so slow
Close your eyes, touch me
There is no danger
You can close your eyes
