Lady Daydream

Mr Twin Sister

If you forget it all, I will bring it with me If you can't find the sea, I will take you there

Green, you still know me by name

Even though I'm losing Doesn't make me a loser yet You still know me by name, Green I'll still be Lady Daydream

She took it all from me Now I can't find my place Do you 'member me Do you know my face?

It could all be a dream, Green
