

Sure I like your smile
And I'd like to talk awhile
But what I really like
Is feeling on your stuff

You don't even know how much I care for you
Care to see you naked
Naked as can be
I'm just so tired of romance
I just want to get in your pants
I just want to feel on your stuff

Ba da Boom Ba da Bing
And then your
Bouncing on my thing
And then the next thing that
You ask for is a ring

You don't even know how much I plan for you
I Plan to take your money
And buy a new guitar

I don't wanna love that will last
I just want a piece of your ass
I just want to feel on your stuff

Sure I like your smile
And I'd like to talk awhile
But what I really like
Is feeling on your stuff

You don't even know how much I care for you
I care to see you naked
Naked as can be

I don't want a love that will last
I just want a piece of your ass
I just want to feel on your stuff
