

Twenty Four Hours

Muddy Waters

Oh I mistreated my baby last night
Woman from holding you here in my arms
Oh I mistreated my baby last night
Woman from holding you here in my arms

Now you know she been gone twenty four hours
And that's twenty three hours too long

You know if I had a million dollars
I would give every dime to bring her back home
Oh, how my poor heart bleeds peoples

It's so sad to be alone
Now you know she been gone
Just about twenty four hours
And that's twenty three hours too long

Oh my baby's so pretty
This little girl she looks just like a charm
I love this woman

This woman, she looks just like a charm
Now you know she been gone twenty four hours
And that's twenty three hours too long
