

Don't Fade IV

Mudhoney

My dreams have turned to rust
Leaving nothing, and nothing's enough
Today, Today

So broken up way down inside
Too hurt to try to hide
Away, Away

I had that dream again last night
That I woke up to everything I write
Dream

Don't fade away
Dream
Don't fade away into another shitty day

Out my window, It only gets worse
In my mirror, It's getting worse
Look away

I had that dream again last night
That I woke up to everything I write
Dream

Don't fade away
Dream
Don't fade into another strange dream

I have this dream every night
The same dream again and again
I dream I'm awake
And everything is alright

Dream
Don't fade away
Dream
Don't fade away
Dream
