

The Open Mind

Mudhoney

There's so much more you can see with your eyes closed
Real ain't real, no more than truth is true, it's just bought and sold

All the leaders are leading blind
Stumbling wildly, crushing lives
The open mind is an empty mind, so I keep mind closed

There's no telling who you could be you refuse to go
Free yourself and leave behind that ugly load
All the preachers are preaching lies
They promise salvation then steal your life
The open mind is an empty mind, so I keep mind closed

Here comes another line with a hook for you to swallow
Here comes another lie designed to get you to follow
Here comes another martyr whose set himself on fire
What the fuck!? He thinks he's going out in style
The open mind is an empty mind, so I keep mind closed
