

Beautiful and Strange

Mudvayne

I've got a splitting head ache
Two aspirin for the pain
Im on a wagon rollin like a freight train
Another darkest day
Always in harms way
I've got a new bruise swelling
Beaten by the bottle

So beautiful and so strange
Scatter all the pieces
The puzzle will remain the same
So hideous, so deranged
Running through the tunnels
Lost inside the maize

Tremble like an earthquake
Patience inside me
Crucifix of dragons
Nailed through the hard way
They wont forget me
All the walls are bloodstained
As my will unravels
Broken like a bottle

So beautiful and so strange
Scatter all the pieces
The puzzle will remain the same
So hideous, so deranged
Running through the tunnels
Lost inside the maize

So beautiful and so strange
Dropping little pebbles
Locked inside of this headspace
So hideous, so deranged
Hiding through the tunnels
Lost inside of me

You stole the matches
You lit the fuse
You let the boils swell
I tie the noose on you

So beautiful and so strange (so strange)
Scatter all the pieces
The puzzle will remain the same
So hideous, so deranged (deranged)
Running through the tunnels
Lost inside the maize

So beautiful, you look beautiful
And so strange, but not as strange as me
So hideous, lock the boy inside me
So deranged, locked inside by you

Locked inside of me
Locked inside of...

Locked inside of me
Locked inside of...
