

Burn the Bridge

Mudvayne

No integrity no sincerity no credibility no regret no principal no ethic no honor makes no fucking sense no inside to the future no thinking and no respect no authority no veracity no honesty no penitence no pride no power just a criminal no morals

Your greed you'd burn the bridge around me to save your self
Your Envy, You can't be what I am even with my help
Gluttony, Take everything from me take it for yourself
My Wrath, I'll just live my own life

So Violent So Dissident No More Requiem so I lament
So Simple to Revere to respect down and left for dead
So forget my forgiveness you've all failed to protect
No Persistence, Insistence my will my stubbornness
Consume Devore Like a Criminal, no standards

Your greed, You'd burn the bridge around me to save your self
Your Envy, You can't be what I am even with my help
Gluttony, Take everything from me take it for yourself
My Wrath, I'll just live my own life

Before I saw the light I crawled through darkness my whole life
So empty
Before I found my life I embraced the death that's coming
So Certain, Drawing Near, Its coming closer it's approaching

I know the signs
I've got the number
I got my vision
I know the motion
My eyes forever opened

You'd burn the bridge around me to save your self
Your Envy, You can't be what I am even with my help
Gluttony, Take everything from me take it for yourself
My Wrath, I'll just live my own life
