Dreams of earthquakes
Dreams of hurricanes
Dreams of the pouring rain
Dreams of tidal waves
(To wash us all away)

Dreams of guns blazed
Dreams of fire rage
Dreams of swollen graves
Dreams of hollow pain
All gone

No more fallen
No more enemy
No more casualty
No more dream

Fall into sleep, fall into me, I have a dream But nobody cares, nobody wants to listen Fall into sleep, fall into me, hang onto a dream that Nobody wants, nobody cares anymore

Dreams of mourning grief Dreams of disbelief Dreams of tragedy Dreams of our disease (To take us all away)

Dreams of fidelity
Dreams of inner peace
Dreams of loyalty
Dreams of unity
All gone, all gone

Fall into sleep, fall into me, I have a dream But nobody cares, nobody wants to listen Fall into sleep, fall into me, hang onto a dream that Nobody wants, nobody cares anymore

The angels are injured Fall with broken burning wings Are we dead inside? Are we blind?

We can't keep moving forward Backwards with closed eyes We're losing sight All lost inside

No more fallen No more enemy

Fall into sleep, fall into me, I have a dream But nobody cares, nobody wants to listen Fall into sleep, fall into me, hang onto a dream That nobody wants, nobody cares Nobody wants, nobody cares, anymore All gone, all gone All gone, all gone
