

Mercy, Severity

Mudvayne

We've come here' from so far away'
I can save you'
If you leave it all behind
This suffering's' been far too long'
Would you take a trip with me
On the back of a star'
I feel like earth's gravity is just here to pull us down.

Mother of creation wait' embrace the souls of a lost world
Carry them away'
Darkness negative receptive'
Pour firmament between our waters
Separate the space
Mother of destruction wait with a belt of
Skulls strap me down
And send the ship away'
Progress with the process' mine the souls
From their casts
Poor form and reshape

This dark womb'
Wraps and covets me'
Redefining understanding' if you open
Up the heart'
Nurturing' this phenomenon'
We can carry you on our wings' our wings
Through the dark
"lightning flashes of insight'
Into the mirth of a dark sky'
Pain of division is nothing'
Joy of dissolution is everything

Mother of creation wait' embrace the souls of a lost world
Carry them away'
Darkness negative receptive'
Pour firmament between our waters
Separate the space
Mother of destruction wait with a belt of
Skulls strap me down
And send the ship away'
Progress with the process' mine the souls
From their casts
Poor form and reshape

Portal sits deep within the eye'
The eye of yin's severity'
Rewards understanding
Portal sits deep within the eye
The eye of yin's severity'
Rewards understanding

Blackness consumes body comforts core of Nothing...

Mother I can remember' a vault of security'
Can you take me away'
Would you take me away'

Won't you take me away
...Away
