

All The Love's Been Made

Mundy

And i will know it's time to go when all the loves' been made, i can't see you in my eyelids, i contemplate a trade,
whan tempted by a witch, i want to make an attempt, when you my love i treat so bad and model you a maid
and model you a maid
When we're sleeping back to back
and we wake on different sides, drinking from two cups...
And when you're gone with your knapsack, please don't feel so bad
'cause the times we spent together were the best i ever had, the ring you gave me in greenwich, the stone fell out and smashed, but the ring was never broken and what can you say to that?
What can you say to that?
When we're sleeping back to back and we're takin different sides
drinking from two cups...
and all the love we made we should not be afraid
when all the love's been made
and we break on different sides
drinking from two cups...
And all the love we made... and all the love and all the love...
