Media Skeptic

Municipal Waste

Some may say I'm too distrustful You might think I've lost my mind The truth is I have the common sense to Red between the lines

Through media exaggerations Lies to sell more publications Honesty's more complicated Another pack of lies

Newscasters to evangelists The same problems always exist From computers to journalists It's not so fair and balanced

You might think I overreact But TV's got me paranoid Real life turned to entertainment To fill some desperate void

Weekly media sensations All to keep the fools in tune Just to make the next deadline They'll sacrifice the truth

They will sacrifice the truth

Descensitize the world

Consume!

Forever be the skeptic
