Mutants of War

Municipal Waste

The walls are closing in Fueled wit hate it strikes again Structures are falling to the ground

Shattered hope lies in the rubble and the smoke As were spreading death and carnage across the town

BEWARE! here comes the pain Metal slicing through your brain A figure stands atop a pile of corpses with an evil smile Asphalt slick with slime and blood This toxic warriors day has come

Bringing death and carnage with his soldiers running wild Now is the time we settle the score We are the mutants - THE MUTANTS OF WAR! Brought forth from rusty barrels that the government set aside A virus quickly spreading reaping carnage nation wide

Wasting the land - MUTANT WAR! Death is at hand - MUTANT WAR! Melting your face - MUTANT WAR! Tasting the waste

Across the barren land Burning flesh as corpses spoil No one in this world is fucking spared We came to thrash and kill Slimig victims at our will Nothing can stop your worst nightmare! MUTANTS OF WAR!
