

Loser

Mushmellow

I don't need friends
I don't need place to stay
I don't wanna hear
Some stuff in my face
Again

I have my own fun
I have my own sun
I'm going back home
I'll be there alone
I don't wanna hear
Things waiking my fear
Again

Looking at myself in the brokem mirror
Even my reflection now I am hated
Hard to tell myself that it isn't real
When everybody saying
That you are loser

Stop pushing me down
Stop saying those things to me
I look like a clown
Just leave me alone and leave

I have my own fun
I have my own sun
I'm going back home
I'll be there alone
I don't wanna hear
Things waiking my fear
Again

Looking at myself in the brokem mirror
Even my reflection now I am hated
Hard to tell myself that it isn't real
When everybody saying
That you are loser
That you are loser

I'm all alone
I'm all alone
I'm all alone
