

Childlike

Mushroomhead

The less we stare a different life
I play the role I smile bright
Consume the perfect pesticide
And live on this so childlike
Surprised I even care at all
Recall the days of wonderful
Delight of all the things we might be