Childlike

Mushroomhead

The less we stare a different life I play the role I smile bright Consume the perfect pesticide And live on this so childlike Surprised I even care at all Recall the days of wonderful Delight of all the things we might be