

The Need

Mushroomhead

Anything you need
I cant be anything you need
Now i walk alone i find a way
All of my prayers unanswered
All of my careless actions
Failures catastrophe
This is killing me
Somewhere in here
Kindly nail yourself
Upon your thoughts

Yourve never had enough
Pain to feel at all
Its coming up now

Fade the cross from my memory
What part of this is saving me
And what exactly is it saving me for
I dont need to believe
Anymore
I look back upon my life
I find it hard to find
The right words that wont hurt
And brings me back to my knees
Nail yourself upon your thoughts

Close your eyes
If you want to be blind
