I Am Not Aggressive

What is it you can't stand? The way I'm living or that I'm loud You choose the safest trail But I don't want to walk that way Go care about yourself I know I don't deserve your hate

I'm not aggressive I just do what I must do! I'm not aggressive Just because I'm not like you!

You tried to get it out But you don't dare to go that wild Well, who's the angry now? Spread your wings, try and learn to fly

I'm not aggressive...
