

The Challenger

Mustasch

The road is the law that I follow
The ride has been my meals
I don't care anything about tomorrow
I'm a beggar on four wheels
I know I need some changes
I starve in supersonic speed

So I'm challenging my fate
I refuse to go insane
I just need to have a brake
I'm a challenger today

The road that you choose, you must follow
Feel free, go all the way
Forever is always forever
Promises aren't made to break
There are no easy answers
There are no shortcuts in your trail

So I'm challenging my fate...

There is no sweet surrender
I won't give in to pain
A horse-powered contender
I hate to fail

So I'm challenging my fate...
