

If you push yourself away from everyone you know
How do you expect relationships to grow?
You feel like a character inside a book
That ends in a disaster, no happy ever after, no, no

Just deal the cards, and hope that you get aces
And when you play your hand, put on your poker faces
Cause life just don't deal aces, you may have to bluff sometime s
You may have to bluff sometimes

The youngest part ... can't figure out the cards
Of our incurable unhappiness and all our flaws
A message reads past credit goes to obvious
I beg you, I preceded you, but I can't seem to reach you, no, n o

Just deal the cards, and hope that you get aces
And when you play your hand, put on your poker faces
Cause life just don't deal aces, you may have to bluff sometime
You may have to bluff sometimes
Don't give up on us
Stand and fight as one.
