

Late Again

MxPx

Late again,
Forgive me friends,
For I am late again,
Til' the day I die, Lord knows I'll try,
'Cause I'm still late again.

When they call my name outside those gates,
I'll be on my way,
Well that's all I can say,
'Cause I'm late again.

Late again,
Forgive me friends,
For I am late again,
Til' the day I die, Lord knows I'll try,
'Cause I'm still late again.

With all the saints, that don't place blame
On sunshine, rain or snow,
Believe me 'cause I know.

That I'm Late again,
Forgive me friends,
For I am late again,
Til' the day I die, Lord knows I'll try,
'Cause I'm still late again

I was late coming into this world,
Don't be late going out
I was late trying to put this record out

Go.

Late again,
Forgive me friends,
For I am late again,
Til' the day I die, Lord knows I'll try,
'Cause I'm still late again. (2x)

Til' the day I die, Lord knows I'll try,
'Cause I'm still late again.
