Nothing Left

We're all a little messed up in our own ways And we always, will be marking days on prison walls Every you think that maybe there's a chance for redemption Don't hold tight onto your own breath Before you know there's nothing left

There's nothing left in your memories That has a thing to do with me Or where I've been for all these years Grinding smiles and forcing gears

I never thought I'd ever be this old And I always, never made a point to never act my age Now I guess it's silly to expect anything more from Everyone that gave so much and more You gave your time

There's nothing left in your memories That has a thing to do with me That gives you reason to believe That the words I'm telling you Have always turned out to be true

I've tried and I've tried to keep you satisfied Though I may never reach the top Every step along the climb is Everything I wanted in this life Cause you gave your time
