Southbound

It's all the same same old town witha different name That's fine by me there's only one place that I wanna be Southbound on I-5 and windows down and music on the stereo I'm drivin' and I'm dreamin' there's no place I'd rather go Staring at white lines on the side of the road (Playing every night with the occasional fight) Been on the road awhile I gotto get back to a place with style Hang out, havin' fun I gotta get back to the beach in the sun
