

Come In Alone

My Bloody Valentine

Come in alone
You'll love to let go
And I'll turn you around
When your hope gave me doubts

Why I don't need
To believe what you see
To look up and around
You were gone, words came out to a sound

Feel I'm alive
You will see why I'm alive
Felt like crying over her
I will go to

Come in alone
You'll love to let go
And I'll turn you around
When your hope gave me doubts
