

Goodbye Forever

My Brightest Diamond

Oh to lose by fire, by flame, this old feeling
Insignificance
Insignificance

Then I can hear you brighter than the stars
Your voice is a razor blade
I can see you shining through the sun
You're so mysterious

Lose the hold as I throw this with a goodbye forever
Fear of exposure
Fear of exposure

Then I can hear you brighter than the stars
Your touch is lightening
I can feel you prickling like a thousand shark teeth
Prickling like a thousand shark teeth, closer to me

Come closer to me
Come closer to me
Come closer to me
Come closer to me, still
