Something Of An End

My Brightest Diamond

When you came jumping down the stairs Screaming bloody awful You woke up God and everyone Screaming bloody awful

So we took you to the doctor He said yeah it's a bad one And there's such a shame about it 'Cause she's so pretty

And then the earth started shaking And yeah it was crazy
Heaven and hell came crashing down And then the earth started shaking Yeah it was crazy
Heaven and hell came crashing
They came crashing

It was beautiful and terrible So beautiful and terrible

The phone call
You never expect
That somebody get it yet
It's a sound you never forget

Because the earth starts shaking
And yeah it's crazy
Heaven and hell come crashing down
And then the earth starts shaking
Yeah it's so crazy
Heaven and hell come crashing
They come crashing
They come cr-cr-crashing

It's so beautiful and terrible
So beautiful and terrible

It was something of an end
Of a lovely and a wild thing
So beautiful in the morning
You're beautiful
So beautiful
You're beautiful in the morning

And I can't seem to get it through your head No matter what I do I can't seem to get it through your head That I always love you
