

Skylines and Turnstiles

My Chemical Romance

You're not in this alone let me break this awkward silence Let me go, go on record, be the first to say I'm sorry hear me out

Well if you take me down or would you lay me out?
And if the world needs something better
Let's give them one more reason now

We walk in single file
We light our rails and punch our time Ride escalators colder than a cell

This broken city sky, like butane on my skin stolen from my eye s

Hello, Angel tell me, where are you? Tell me where we go from h ere

This broken city sky, like butane on my skin stolen from my eye

Hello, Angel tell me, where are you? Tell me where we go from h ere

Tell me we go from

And in this moment we can't close the lids on burning eyes
Our memories blanket us with friends we know, like fallout vapo r

Steel corpses stretch out towards an ending sun, scorched and b lack

It reaches in and tears your flesh apart, as ice cold hands rip into your heart

That's if you've still got one that's left inside that cave you call a chest

And after seeing what we saw, can we still reclaim our innocenc e?

And if the world needs something better

This broken city sky, like butane on my skin stolen from my eye

Hello, Angel tell me, where are you? Tell me where we go from h ere
