Bigger Than Love

My Favorite Highway

We've all got scars as big as ours A token for the pain we hide inside of us Everyone's scared that somebody knows You keep it inside, yeah, that's how it goes If you've ever heard a beating heart A rhythm for the songs we're too afraid to sing Nobody here is perfectly fine A delicate frame, a fragile design

If there's a hole in your heart You gotta pull it together It takes the courage to start But now is better than never It takes a push and a shove Somehow it's never enough And it's alarming how quick you could forget that

Nothing's bigger than love Nothing's bigger than love Nothing's bigger than love All you need, all you need is love

Some people change and some just won't You can't take back the words you wish you'd never said Promises break and lovers will lie You hold up your hands and let out a sigh So smile right before you fall And lay beside this mess and call it consequence Somebody said that life isn't fair When somebody else was saying a prayer

No one's taking me out Nothing's pulling me down I turn my head to the crowd This love is big and it's loud

This is the car in the crash This is the light in the flash This is the answers you know But you're just too scared ask

If there's a hole your heart You gotta pull it together It takes the courage to start But now is better than never It takes a push and a shove Somehow it's never enough
