

What Are You Waiting For?

My Favorite Highway

It's never that, it's never quite the innocence
You've taken back
All the words you thought I said
You never had,
You never had to say a word don't say a word
Just hold me close
Hold me close and let me go
You'll never know
You need to know exactly what you're letting go
You're letting go
So wipe away and
Take it slow

Is there anyone out there who is listening to anything that I say
Is there anyone out there who can take me hand
So, come on come on what are you waiting for
Waiting for your life to end to begin again
No you can't back up and try again

You never had, you never had a fighting chance
So watch your back
Somebody always managed to remember that under attack
When you lose a friend do you pick up the slack
Whoever said that distance brings you closer they must not of know
That when you're out of sight, your out of mind, and all alone
And when you are on your on
You hate to think that you should of known

Is there anyone out there who is listening to anything that I say
Is there anyone out there who will take me hand
So, come on come on what are you waiting for
Waiting for your life to end to begin again
No you can't back up and try again

So, come on come on what are you waiting for
Waiting for your life to end to begin again
No you can't back up and try again

You never did, you never did
Like you never said
I wish you hadn't
Waiting for you
Waiting for you (oh)

So, come on come on what are you waiting for
Waiting for your life to end to begin again
No you can't back up and try again

So, come on come on what are you waiting for
Waiting for your life to end to begin again
No you can't back up and try again
