

Picture of You

My Morning Jacket

I've got the ocean blue
I've got a picture of you with green green eyes
And a cocaine smile
And a little worry anymore

I've got a house in a court
I've got a car and a door and a big left arm
And a little worry anymore
'Cause I tried, I did

Sorry, you know I'm sorry
You know I'd give you anything on a dime
Sorry again, cut your little head
But sorry don't mean nothin' on a dime

You don't say I'll wait up
You don't say I'll wait up
You don't say I'll wait up
