

Weeks Go by Like Days

My Morning Jacket

Oh you've got a smile
Like a sweet lovin' Angel, oh baby
And you've got a heart
That's made of pure gold, oh baby
You've given me so much
That I'm grateful of such a faithful love
And it gets sweeter as the days go by
Sweeter as the days go by
Oh I'd be lost without you baby
Now don't ever leave me
'Cause your sweet kiss
Turns on my sunshine, oh yeah baby
At night the stars, they wink at you
I have seen them, baby
Ah but I guess every single star
Knows how sweet you are
You get sweeter as the days go by
Sweeter honey, as the days go by, yeah
Just a little sweeter, baby
Just a little sweeter, baby
Just a little sweeter, baby
Just a little sweeter, baby
Now there are so many reasons
For me to love you, oh baby
And I'm so lucky to have you
And that's no lie, no baby
Yes, you're a candy maker's dream come true
And darlin', sugar has nothin' on you
And you get sweeter as the days go by
Sweeter as the days go by
Honey, you're sweeter than honey
You're sweeter than sugar
