

Hot In The Dolls House

My Passion

I'm confused
Sat down here
At the edge of civilisation
Burnt and bruised
You say you say you say
I'm a messed up cavalier
So why am I here?
You say you say you say
I want snow white
Now

I am torn Wake me please
To a sense of realisation
Tired and worn
You say you say you say
Vote me you can trust me implicitly
We say we say we say
We want your blood
Now

Turning my head
To the dreams she made
Does she want it, does she get it
Will she kill your flame
I'm turning my head
To where I live
And all the girls smile for me

smile for me
smile for me
smile for me
You say you say you say
Vote me you can trust me implicitly
We say we say we say
We want your blood
Now

Turn my head
With dreams I need
Where all the flowers will be for me
Turn my head
To where I live
And all the girls will smile for me
