

Monster

My Ruin

Destroy me as want turns to need
You murder me just to watch me bleed.
I live inside... my own make belief,
I sacrifice... what you can't see
I'm hissing mad and I'm dripping wet.
I have no father, I have no pet and I'll be damned the day I die
Your antimuse your antilife

Can I speak?
I will destroy if I speak,
It will destroy how I speak...
I will destroy when I speak...
It will destroy you another lover, another man, another victim of circumstance.
I close my eyes with no regret I know your name baby but I forget
My mouth is cruel and my lips are mean,
I dirty minded and I am obscene
But I'll be saved the day I die,
I'll be your muse, I'll be your lie (repeat chorus)

I see God and he is my friend
But the devil's standing next to him,
He says my name and I feel so weak,
Just like a monster you cannot speak,
I am like a monster...
When I speak am I a monster... when I speak?
You just a monster when we speak so I'm a monster when I speak
...
Can I speak? I'll be your monster when we speak
And I will speak to destroy...
Speak and destroy....
Speak and destroy yeah.
