

You All Know Better Than Me

My Ticket Home

I'm feeling okay when I want to
I'm feeling okay when I want you
I'm feeling okay when I want to
I'm feeling okay it all goes

Play catch with a fishhook
Cut up your notebook
You all know better then me
Make friends with lights off
Cover your heart up
You all know better then me

My brain is leaking out glue
I'm good for only one use

I'm feeling okay when I want to
I'm feeling okay when I want you
I'm feeling okay when I want to
I'm feeling okay it all goes

Slow. Some things feel best when they're not real
I'm starting to fray
Intentions tender. Intentions wither
The strands all let go
Some things don't feel like they should feel
But I'm glad to be grey
It's my place and I like it

I'm so close to your heartache I feel retarded
You all know better then me
I feel stupid and left out
Promise I'm here now
You all know better then me

My brain is leaking out glue
I'm good for only one use

I'm feeling okay when I want to
I'm feeling okay when I want you
I'm feeling okay when I want to
I'm feeling okay it all goes

Slow. Some things feel best when they're not real
I'm starting to fray
Intentions tender. Intentions wither
The strands all let go
Some things don't feel like they should feel
But I'm glad to be grey
It's my place and I like it
