All in the Name of Love

I'll be damed if I'm sitting at the doctors Popping out three of your kids Thinking everything peachy keen While you're screwing everything with two legs Get a call from the bank about my credit Talking 'bout I don't qualify After 13 years of marriage And all the dog on sacrifice, oh no

Hell no I can't do it You're too much like my father Hell no refuse to go through it Don't wanna be like my mother Crushed dreams and broken hearts All in the name of love So hell no I won't do it all in the name of love

(All in the name of love)
No smiling always fighting
(All in the name of love)
Disrespect so many lies and
(All in the name of love)
Going crazy I'm losing my mind
(All in the name of love)
See I can't be that woman no

I'll be damned if I'm cutting out coupons for some milk eggs and cheerios Have me struggling just to buy pampers 'cause you spend it on random hoes Wont be standing at the freaking bus stop in December when it's way too cold Checking to see if your really at your Chris house When you really need to be at home

Hell no I can't do it You're too much like my father Hell no refuse to go through it Don't wanna be like my mother Crushed dreams and broken hearts All in the name of love So hell no I won't do it all in the name of love

(All in the name of love)
No smiling always fighting
(All in the name of love)
Disrespect so many lies and
(All in the name of love)
Going crazy I'm losing my mind
(All in the name of love)
See I can't be that woman no

(Love) So many people use the word in vain (Love)
When it's conveinent to get what they need
Have a sincerer person
While your siting home in bed
Sleeping with my eyes open
Ain't no way to live, it ain't no way to live
All the stress, the fights, the pain the money, the drama over the years

(All in the name of love)
No smiling always fighting
(All in the name of love)
Disrespect so many lies and
(All in the name of love)
Going crazy I'm losing my mind
(All in the name of love)
I can't be that woman no

(All in the name of love)
No smiling always fighting
(All in the name of love)
Disrespect so many lies and
(All in the name of love)
Going crazy I'm losing my mind
(All in the name of love)
And I don't wanna be that woman no

All in the name of love
