

One Man Woman (Ol' Skoo' Joint)

Mýa

See baby
I know you have a lot on your mind
But there's somethin'
I really wanna share with you, listen

Boy I know that you've been hurt before...
I can see your pain
I know that she gave you a broken heart
So it's hard to trust another woman again
Can't ya' see I ain't like them other girls
I don't wanna just hit and run boy
And honestly I could have 3 or 4
But all that I really want is just one

Cause I'm a one man kinda woman
You ain't gotta worry 'bout a thing no
You ain't gotta worry 'bout a thing
Cause everything I say is what I mean oh
I'm a one man (one man, one man)
Kinda woman (woman)
Baby I know you've been hurt before
Baby I know you've been hurt before
But you ain't gotta worry no more
(No more, no more)

Too many times
My heart's been on the floor
But that don't mean
I gotta let the devil win (no ooh)
With all the games
I could of been shut the door
And never wanna feel another man again

See everyone can't put up a wall forever
(Boy let down your guard)
And everyone needs to feel the same kinda love
(Open up your heart)
So lay down your guard
I promise that I won't hurt ya (no boy)
I'll do everything I can and more
To make you feel secure
Baby I'm all yours

Cause I'm a one man kinda woman
You ain't gotta worry 'bout a thing no
You ain't gotta worry 'bout a thing
Cause everything I say is what I mean oh
I'm a one man (one man, one man)
Kinda woman (woman)
Baby I know you've been hurt before
Baby I know you've been hurt before
But you ain't gotta worry no more
(No more, no more)

All them other guys, they could try
But baby all I see is you
I've been stackin' mine

So if there comes a time
Baby know I got ya' too
(One man woman, one man woman)
You da' only one baby ain't no other
Only one to get my love
If you let me in boy I'll treat you right

Cause I'm a one man kinda woman
You ain't gotta worry 'bout a thing no
You ain't gotta worry 'bout a thing
Cause everything I say is what I mean oh
I'm a one man (one man, one man)
Kinda woman (woman)
Baby I know you've been hurt before
Baby I know you've been hurt before
But you ain't gotta worry no more
(No more, no more)

(One Man Woman. One Man Woman)
Baby you're my everything
(You da' only one baby ain't no other)
Ain't no other man for me
(One Man Woman. One Man Woman)
One Man Woman
(Ain't no need to fear, you got all my lovin')
You got all my lovin' baby
(One Man Woman. One Man Woman)
Boy you're everything I need
(Everything I need home, best friend, lover)
Oh ooh only wanna give my love
If ya' let me in boy I'll treat you right (yeah)
