MyChildren MyBride

If every star fell out of the sky tonight
Every wish I'd make would take me closer to you Have you ever wanted something so bad it hurts?
To never wake from the world that you once knew

You said we'll meet where the dreams are made So I'll climb in my battered ship and voyage to the ends of the earth
Closing my eyes and setting sail on the dark waves
We'll suck this dream world dry of every ounce of love that it' s worth

I've fallen and I can't get up, such intoxicating synergy

Inhaling each other's ecstasies, admiring your God-given design

We'll wake the dead tonight to tell them all about the love we found
Sitting and listening to the dry bones crawl out of the ground
They'll dance till dusk with great bliss and celebration
And then they'll hide like the moon when it sees the sun

I'll search for what mother nature finds most divine
Let's get lost in this moment, I'll do anything to make you min
