Phantasm of deserted realms
Approaching glowing red
Felt the burning in my soul
Captured all... All I've ever known

Lost in xenomorphic temples Euphoria of non-existence Six hundred light-years away An explosion driven shock-wave

Nebulous speed of light-years Cosmic collision of imminent mind override Sight of my burning eyes Xenomorphic shadow, reaching the light of days... The light of days

Xenomorphic

This celestial sphere breaking Consciousness in the taking Invading miraculous sway Dark particles strain

Life craving binaural threat
Encroaching pulse of death
Transfixed like a deadweight bait
Waiting phantom limbs paralysed
Felt the burning in my soul
Captured all... All I've ever known

Ageing and dying eyes closed... Ageing, dying So many questions unsolved Forever night unfolds ... I don't belong

Mesmerized ignorance
Settling for non-existent will Asepticism, schism, drilling in
Xenomorphic all consuming holographic thoughts
Departure of our will... Demeaning
