

Dry Spell

Myka Relocate

How am I supposed to feel safe
When you're ripping at my throat?

How am I supposed to feel safe
When every word ignites a new flame?
Running around, running around
Take me to the place
Where I can rest without feeling you
Holding me down, holding me down
Time and time again
This cycle never ends

Run away, cause you keep falling apart
But we know, yeah, we know
That I'll be stronger
Run away cause you keep tearing me down
You'll never know
How bad it hurt to watch you let go

You can take what you want
You'll never take me
This is my pride, my oath, my reality

How am I supposed to feel safe
When you're ripping at my throat?
How am I supposed to feel safe
When every word ignites a new flame?

Cause everyone I know
Keeps playing games with me
Gotta get inside my mind
So they can finally see
That the life that I lead isn't any other way
Isn't any other way it should be

Run away, cause you keep falling apart
But we know, yeah, we know
That I'll be stronger
Run away cause you keep tearing me down
You'll never know
How bad it hurt to watch you let go

You can take what you're running from
But it's time for me
Time for me to speak... out

I will not be held
At the mercy of your vices
Your vices

Run away, cause you keep falling apart
But we know, yeah, we know
That I'll be stronger
Run away, cause you keep falling apart
But we know, yeah, we know
That I'll be stronger

Run away, cause you keep falling apart
But we know, yeah, we know
That I'll be stronger
Run away cause you keep tearing me down
You'll never know
How bad it hurt to watch you let go
Watch you let go
