

Only Reminds Me Of You

MYMP

I see you, beside me
It's only a dream
Vision of what used to be
The laughter, the sorrow
Pictures in time
Fading to memorie
How could I ever let you go
Is it too late to let you know

I tried to run from your side
But each place I hide
It only reminds me of you
When I turn out all the lights
Even the night
It only reminds me of you

I needed my freedom
That's what I've thought
But I was a fool to believe
My heart lied while you cried
Rivers of tears
But I was too blind to see
Everything we've been through before
Now it means so much more yeah...

I tried to run from your side
But each place I hide
It only reminds me of you
When I turn out all the lights
Even the night
It only reminds me of you

Only you...

So come back to me
I'm down on my knees
Boy can't you see...

How could I am ever let you go
Is it to late... ?
To let you know

I tried to run from your side
But each place I hide
It only reminds me of you
When I turn out all the lights
Even the night
It only reminds me of you

You... You...

You, only reminds me of you
