

As I Am

Mystery

Say!
Do you know who I am?
Someday
Maybe you'll understand

Hey!
You who walk on my Land
Here you are welcomed again

Sometimes I get frightened
By voices that I hear without feeling
Coming through like visions
Of hungry lions out for the call.

Hey! While you exploit my land
Wait! Let me give you a hand

Sometimes I get frightened
By words that I read without meaning
Caught up on a mission
Of misled angels lost in their fall

Say! Do you know who I am?
Do you know who I am?

And as the story goes
Lemur voice echoes
Does anybody know?
If you are one of those
And the voices screaming
Pearce the skin and reach one's heart

Take me, take me just as I am
Let me, let me be who I am

Take me, take me just as I am
Take me just as I am
Let me be who I am
Let me be who I am
