

Destiny

Mystery

Say...

Is there someone that you know?
Who's never shed a tear,
Wear a smile that'll last forever
If there's someone let me know
My eyes just need to see...

Fate...

Is there someone here who knows?
What we're all meant to be
For times we call tomorrow
If there's someone please don't go
My heart just needs to feel...

Love...

Is there someone who really knows?
The reason for all that pain
That fills my heart with sorrow
Is there someone I should know?
My soul just needs to heal...

To heal...

To heal...
