

In My Dreams

Mystery

I tasted my dreams
I've felt the fire
That burned inside of me
Sad songs remind me of you

Alone at night
I see the light
Far beyond the horizon
The flame has died
The dream is gone

In my dreams
I reach my hand to you
In my dreams
I see your eyes
And then I fall in tears

Every time you win, you lose
Every time you laugh, you cry
Whenever you think you find the answer
That's when the questions change

It took me a while to realize
But still I hope you'll compromise
Standing alone, I wait for you

A dusty road a million miles away
The blind pretender I walk to you
Will I ever see the sunrise again?

In my dreams
I cover you in love
In my dreams
For a while you smile
And then you turn away

Every time you win, you lose
Every time you laugh, you cry
Whenever you think you find the answer
That's when the questions change

In my dreams
We dance the night away
In my dreams
So close to you
Please tell me that you'll stay

Every time you win, you lose
Every time you laugh, you cry
Whenever you think you find the answer
That's when the questions change

Every time you win, you lose
(Every time you cry)
Every time you laugh, you cry
Whenever you think you find the answer
That's when the questions change
