

Snowwhite

Mystery

Distant sirens pierce the silence
Charmed by neon signs
Innocent runaway
Walks through the gates
That lead them all into the Hall

Angel voices, God creations
Come through tiny lines
They're all washed by the waves
That move their hearts one by one
One!

And they all heard...

Smoke and colours, moving faders
Thunder flashing lights
As the Queen walks the stage
Welcomed by cheering little sparkling eyes

Fire Dragons
Burn the Anger tossed into their minds
Will she show one the way?
The road to reach a higher Stage
Someday

And she sang...
