

The Falling Man

Mystery

Wake up in the night
Open up your eyes
Look into the Mirror

Tell me what you see
Tell me how you feel
Tell me who's in danger

And you don't even know me
You've never cared till now
Why are you here to take me?

Walking up the stairs to your own despair
Climbing broken ladders

Can anybody hear me?
Does anybody care?
Someone please just help me

Can you read the writing on the wall?
I can't see it now

Can you see the shadows in the hall?
I can't see them now

The fire burns behind me bursting all in flames
Somebody come to save me

Can you feel the end is drawing near?
I can feel it now

Can you feel the coldness of your fear?
I can feel it now

Now everything about me is bursting into flames
Is there a God to help me?

Somebody come to save me

Mirror! When two worlds collide
Fire! Burning in the sky

Somebody come to save me

Wake up in the night
Open up your eyes
Look into the Mirror

Somebody come to save me
Is there a God to help me?
Somebody come to save me

Open your mortal eyes
Listen to Angels cry
Too late to read the signs
Too late to turn back time

See a man is falling
Watch the man is falling down

Look a man is falling
Watch the man is falling down
